A Breed of Distinction – White Park Cattle: Ancient and Modern
By Lawrence Alderson CBE, President of the White Park Cattle Society

This 167 page A4 paperback traces the history of the White Park cattle from its sacrifice to the enlightened Laws of Hywel Dda in Deheubarth in the tenth century, through its stance as the monarch of the Caledonian Forest and a prized beast of choice, to its current role in making a significant contribution to the future of sustainable non-intensive livestock farming. Lawrence Alderson explains how the White Park is a native breed supremely adapted to the British environment, which has enriched our past and which has the ability to enhance our future.
